NEW EAGLE AERIES.

State Organizer Kept Busy in All Parts of the State.

State Deputy Organizer J. T. Hinkle, of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will go to Grant's Pass December 28, for the purpose of installing an aerie. The new lodge will start with a membership of about 100. W. T. Colburn, of Grant's Pass, has written Mr. Hinkle that already 68 charter members have been secured. The degree team from the Eugene aerie will put on the work.

"Steps are being taken," said Mr. Hinkle, "to organize a lodge at Roseburg, and another at Salem. I shall stop at these two towns during my trip to Grant's Pass. I think there is an excellent field at Salem for a large aerie."

"Work of constructing the Pendleton aerie hall will commence shortly. The lodge has just secured additional ground from John Stever, so that the new building will have a frontage on Court street of 72 feet."

HOLIDAY BARGAINS.

Tallman & Co., Closing Out Stock of Dolls, Toys and Games.

Tallman & Co. have decided to close out their entire line of dolls and games and are making some astonishing cuts in prices in order to make the goods move rapidly as it is the intention not to carry over any of the stock in these lines. The stock of dolls includes all sizes and kinds, with bisque and china heads. In the way of toys and games will be found a large collection of desirable articles. It will be time well spent to call and get the prices on these goods.

Lively Times.

Crowded stores, streets full of people carrying packages and bundles of every description, snap, and hum and go evident on all sides. It wouldn't be too big a stretch of one's imagination to think they were on Broadway. At any rate if Broadway is any more crowded than Pendleton's streets these days, why, it must be hard work getting through the crowds.

Home for the Holidays.

Rev. Jonathan Edwards, formerly pastor of the Congregational church, but now traveling evangelist and lecturer, is spending the holidays at his home in this city. He gave an address to the students of the Pendleton Academy this morning, his subject being, "Three Great Orators."

Smith-Price.

Jerald Jackson Price and Lelia Smith were married yesterday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Robert Warner. Mr. Price is fireman on a helper engine at Kamela. They will make their home at Kamela.

Finishing New House.

C. K. Cranston, accountant at the First National Bank, is taking a week's vacation from his duties to fix up his new house, which, by the way, is one of the neatest and most convenient houses built in North Pendleton for some time.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness shown during our recent bereavement in the death of our daughter.
